Bethlehem Escorts its Two Martyrs to their Final Resting Places

- + Adjust font size

Bethlehem, June 1, 2012 Wafa – On Friday, large crowds of people in Bethlehem Governorate escorted their two martyrs, Ali Ja'ara from Aida camp, and Mohamed Zaoul from the village of Housan, to their final resting places, grieving and denouncing the inhumane and unethical actions of the Israeli occupation towards the bodies of the martyrs.

The funeral procession set off from Manger Square in front of the Umar ibn al-Khattab Mosque, in the center of Bethlehem, after the funeral prayers were offered for their virtuous bodies. They were carried on the shoulders of a few National Security men, and were taken through the streets of Bethlehem to the village of Artas, where the body of the martyr Ja'ara was laid to rest in the martyrs' cemetery there.

Afterward, the procession, which included hundreds of civilian and military vehicles, headed towards the village of Housan, where the martyr Zaoul was buried in the village cemetery.

In addition to the family members and relatives of the two martyrs and a great number of people, the funeral procession included Deputy Governor Mohamed Taha Abu Alia, the Minister of Detainees and Ex-Detainees, Issa Qaraqe', senior security officers, Governorate officials and public figures, Deputy Khalil al-Lahham, and the mufti of Bethlehem Governorate.
